

The Gay Stereotype

Contributed by Beth

Remember Mrs. Garrison? Mr/Mrs. Garrison from South Park? Remember how much fun you had laughing at him/her while she/he pranced around in his/her classroom? Sure, everybody loves Mr/Mrs. Garrison... However, I believe that this loveable character has created a stereotype for gays. I have a message for any person who thinks that homosexuals are NOT feminine. They act like us, and I believe that their bedroom and personal habits are not any of our business!
